Here to fight for Hammond

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the entire Hammond community for its involvement in the South Australian 2014 State Election.

I am humbled to be re-elected as your representative in the Parliament of South Australia with over 64 per cent of the two party preferred vote.

It is a tremendous honour and privilege to be elected by the people of Hammond and I will use this responsibility to stand up to the Weatherill Labor Government for better opportunities for the area.

I am committed to fight for Hammond and to continue my work in building a positive future for Hammond.

As someone who has lived in the electorate their entire life, I am passionate about our regional communities and will continue to raise the important matters facing our electorate with the Weatherill Labor Government.

My immediate focus is the Murray Bridge Racing Club Gifford Hill development which will deliver jobs, boost tourism and the local economy.

My priorities remain better public transport, improved infrastructure, better access to health services, more opportunities for our young people, recognition of the economic input of our primary industries and the mighty River Murray, Lower Lakes and Coorong.

I would like to thank my family, my supporters and the many volunteers that helped during the campaign. Without you, this election result could not have been achieved and I thank you for the many hours of dedication and sacrifices many of you have made.
