Murraylands wins at the 2017 Adult Learners' Week Awards

Member for Hammond, Adrian Pederick was pleased to attend the Adult Learners' Week Awards Dinner on 24th August in support of award finalist Christine Willersdorf and the MFA Jobs 4 Murraylands program.

“What a successful night, I was so extremely pleased to be there in support of my constituent, Christine Willersdorf, and also in support of the MFA Jobs 4 Murraylands Program, both of which were finalists in their categories” said Mr Pederick.

“Christine’s dedication to the industry of training and facilitating was recognised at the Adult Learners’ Week awards when she was awarded the 2017 Adult Educator/Mentor of the Year.

“Christine believes in all those who participate in her programs, but what she teaches them is crucial to their success, and that’s to believe in themselves.

“The success didn’t stop there for Christine and Regional Development Australia (RDA) Murraylands and Riverland.

“The MFA Jobs 4 Murraylands program, facilitated by Christine in collaboration with RDA Murraylands and Riverland, was also awarded the Adult Learning Program of the Year.

“I commend the many people like Christine who dedicate their career to bettering the lives of others and I congratulate all adult learners’ for their commitment to continuing to learn and grow,” said Mr Pederick.
