

2013 PEDAL PRIX

RIGHT - Jaxon Penny and Makisha Salter, from St Joseph's Murray Bridge, prepare for the start of the Australian HPV Super Series race - or the pedal prix, as it is better known - with Fiona Penny and team manager Kym Bates.

Blake Zadow and Jackson Fromm, from Taillem Bend Primary School, prepare to pedal away at start of the race.

Keely Liebich, Member for Hammond Adrian Pederick, Caitlin Marshall, Telstra Country Wide's Mark Bolton, Josh Kirpensteyn, Ben Sinclair, Mack Pederick, Daniel Waddington, Lorien Waddington, Angus Pederick, Bryson Jagger, Charlie Seidel, Silas Peters, Jack Stolarski, Duncan Peters, Kaicess Cameron and Bradley Kirp help State Opposition Leader Steven Marshall with the full pedal prix experience.

Nick Hill, from Unity College, prepares to start the race on Saturday.

Nick Lindner, of Unity College, gears himself up for the big race.

Liam Lawrie, from St Joesph's Murray Bridge, waves to the crowd as he pedals around the course.

Tom Simmons, from Unity College, rides through his stint at the 24 hour event.

Phea Jae Gage, from Murray Bridge High School, and Josh Budarick, from Unity College, battle it out on the track.