

Goolwa Mobile Electorate Office

Member for Hammond, Adrian Pederick invites community members to meet with him at an informal gathering in Goolwa today, Thursday, 21st of November 2013.

Mr Pederick will be visiting the town to meet with constituents and Alexandrina Council representatives.

"I will be using this opportunity to meet members of the community who would like to have an informal chat about any topic and to raise any concerns they may have," Mr Pederick said.

"I would be happy for anyone to come along, and encourage anyone interested in raising local issues with me to RSVP to my office."

The meet and greet will take place on Thursday, November 21 at Cafelicious, Signal Point from 11.00 am.

To RSVP contact Kim Duffield at the office by Wednesday, November 20.
