

Ki Ki turns 100

THE Mallee town of Ki Ki recently celebrated 100 years of being gazetted by rolling out the barbecue and showcasing memorabilia at its town hall. About 280 people enjoyed the day's festivities which included a pooled lunch. These photos were supplied.

SWEET MOMENT: This cake to mark Ki Ki's 100-year milestone was made by Joyce Medlow nee Goodall, Taillem Bend.

TEAM WORK: In the 100-years Celebrations Committee are Trevor Watts, Nannette Watts, Mary Verhees, Don Goodall, Malcolm Watts, Helen Bowering, Ros Watts and Geraldine Goodall, all from Ki Ki.

GOOD TIMES: Don Goodall, Mary Verhees, and Trevor Watts, all from Ki Ki, local MP Adrian Pederick, Coomandook, Nanette Watts and Helen Bowering, both from Ki Ki, share a joke.

GOOD LAUGH: Former Ki Ki residents Ruth and Don Litchfield, Murray Bridge, enjoy a bit of sunshine.

IN TOWN: Barry Goodall, Michael Goodall and Peter Fielding, all from Murray Bridge, and Joyce Medlow, Taillem Bend, enjoy a day in the town where they were once residents.

AT WORK: Chris Goodall, Murray Bridge, Colleen Rodda, Kingston, and Maggie Forsyth, Katherine Hill and Janet Watts, all from Ki Ki, at work in the kitchen.

FINE FLAVOURS: Merrawyn Hansen, Coomandook, Kaye Cattle, Netherton, and Jocelyn Hand, Ki Ki, enjoy the lunch at the town hall.
