

life to Mannum

“These are amazing forms of work from recycled items, I certainly know where to take my unwanted bits and pieces taking up room in the shed next time”.

Mr Baker said the works of art on display were of a high-quality standard.

“SALA this year was very special to me and the launch was certainly metropolitan quality,” he said.

“This launch has lifted the profile of the Mannum Dock Museum and the Arnold Gallery as a cultural centre for our community and visitors.”

-Details: Mannum’s Colour and Life SALA exhibition will be on display at the Mannum Dock Museum until the end of August. The museum is open from 9am-5pm Monday to Friday and between 10am-4pm on Saturdays and Sundays.

Member for Schubert Stephan Knoll, Mid Murray Council Mayor Dave Burgess and Member for Hammond Adrian Pederick attended Mannum’s SALA opening night.

Artist Anne O'Dea with one of her paintings on display in the Colour and Life exhibition.

Artist Joel Zimmerman shows off his work which is on display in the Colour and Life exhibition.

Artist Jacky Charleston has her sculptures on display as part of Mannum's SALA event.

Artist Steve Oatway stands with his chariot on the Colour and Life exhibition opening night.