

New look Shadow Cabinet

MEMBER for Hammond Adrian Pederick has been given the responsibility of Opposition Parliamentary Secretary for Agriculture, Food and Fisheries, Forests and Regional Development in the renewed State Liberal Team.

Mr Pederick was informed of the news on Thursday when Liberal Leader Steven Marshall announced his Shadow Cabinet and Parliamentary secretaries.

"I'm very excited and honoured to have received this role from State Liberal Leader Steven Marshall, especially because these portfolios are particularly important to the Hammond electorate," Mr Pederick said.

"I am passionate about our regional communities and will continue to raise the important matters facing regional communities with the Weatherill Labor Government.

"The State Liberals understand that we need to support our regional communities to grow jobs, improve infrastructure and reinvigorate our economy."

The Shadow Cabinet has four Shadow

Ministers and four Parliamentary Secretaries from regional South Australia, including Member for Chaffey Tim Whetstone who will tackle investment and trade.

Mr Marshall said future policy development for regional South Australia was in good hands with his cabinet.

"The latest Shadow Cabinet line-up reflects the Liberals' long and proud history of representing regional South Australia in the State Parliament," he said

"My four Shadow Ministers and four Parliamentary Secretaries come from the four points of compass in regional South Australia and will traverse the entire state on a regular basis in their respective roles."

Mr Pederick will work closely with Opposition Agriculture

Spokesman ~ David Ridgway and Opposition Regional Development Spokesman Steven Griffiths to address issues in their portfolio areas.
