

TRIBUTES TO A RIVER CHAMPION

“Henry became the face of the fight for the River Murray. His tireless advocacy for the environment and sustainable fishing in the Lower Lakes and Coorong will live on through others who have learnt from Henry’s passion and dedication.” - River Murray Minister Ian Hunter

“Henry’s contribution to the wellbeing of the Murray has had an effect well beyond the reaches of his home at Clayton Bay. He was a realist and an optimist ... esteemed by his own community as well as people right across the basin.” - MDBA chair Craig Knowles

“The Murray-Darling Basin Plan would not have proceeded without his efforts and dedication.” - Member for Hammond Adrian Pederick

“A humble man committed to his family, his State and his country.” - Member for Mayo Jamie Briggs

“A quiet family man and professional fisherman from Clayton thrust into the limelight which he had shunned, Henry just got on with business.” - River advocate Peter Smith