

Working committee established

STATE Liberal Leader Steven Marshall has established an internal working committee responsible for keeping the state government to account with its post-election commitment to re-establish confidence in South Australia's regional communities.

The Regional Affairs Committee, to be chaired by Liberal Member for Hammond, Adrian Pederick, will be concerned with all matters regarding regional South Australia and hopes to work closely with recently appointed Regional Development Minister Geoff Brock.